FIAC, INTERNATIONAL RENDEZ-VOUS OF CONTEMPORARY AND MODERN ART ANNOUNCES ITS CANCELLATION IN 2020

It is with great disappointment that FIAC announces the cancellation of its 2020 edition, initially scheduled at the Grand Palais from October 22nd to 25th.

This decision is the result of numerous and constant discussions between the organizers and its exhibitors, collectors, visitors and partners these past weeks.

Despite its deep determination to organize FIAC - this unique rendez-vous bringing together specialists in the field of modern and contemporary art - in 2020, and its efforts to overcome the difficulties caused by the health crisis, the fair is not in a position to organize an event that meets the legitimate expectations of its exhibitors.

This decision shall apply to FIAC at the Grand Palais and its Hors les Murs venues, the Petit Palais, the Jardin de Tuileries, the musée national Eugène-Delacroix, the Place Vendôme and the Place de la Concorde.

In this context, FIAC will reimburse 100% of the sums already paid by its exhibitors.

FIAC is incredibly thankful to its exhibitors, institutional partners, visitors and sponsors for their support, trust and commitment.

The 47th edition of FIAC will take place from October 21st to 24th 2021 at the Grand Palais Éphémère on the Champ-de-Mars.
